Dear Mr. Schiller,

This is to thank you for writing and reporting.I would like to apologise for the delay of our answer because of the flood of letters at that time of the year.Your reception report proved to be correct and now I am sending you its verification. Enclosed herewith you will find also a copy of our current program-schedule,which will help you to tune in to us more often in the future.

I take the opportunity to send you a "martenitsa" thus wishing you health and happiness in the coming Spring,according to an old Bulgarian custom.

I would like to assure you that any comments or suggestions concerning our programs will be greatly appreciated.Also should you have any questions about this country they will be answered with pleasure.

With the best compliments,I remain

Sincerely yours: M. Andreyeva
In Charge of listeners'letters.
